PÂTÉ OR TERRINE?

The difference between a game pâté and a game terrine is mainly in the texture and therefore when it is used.

We always use top-quality game meat, marinated and seasoned with a special blend of spices.

Because of their finer texture, game pâtés are better suited as a delicious sandwich filling or on toast to accompany an aperitif.

Because of their coarser texture, game terrines are an ideal delicacy on a hearty piece of baguette served with a good glass of wine, or as a starter to a beautiful dinner.
